

Lesson plan

Express Yourself with Interjections

Objective:

Students will learn to identify and use interjections to express emotions in English speaking and writing.

Materials:

- Whiteboard and markers
- Worksheets

Lesson Plan:

1. Introduction (10 minutes)

- Interjections are words that express emotions or feelings.
Examples: "Wow!", Ouch!, Hooray! and "Oh no!".

2. Identification (15 minutes)

- Show flashcards with various interjections and ask students to identify the emotions they represent.

3. Practice (20 minutes)

- Give students sentences missing interjections. Have them fill in with appropriate interjections.
- Practice using interjections in everyday conversations.

4. Application (15 minutes)

- Students write a short story using interjections to convey emotions.

5. Review and Summary (10 minutes)

- Recap the lesson highlights and discuss how interjections enhance language expression.
- Assign worksheets for additional practice at home.
